*Option subject to change and are based on currently available information from Microsoft. Microsoft has publicly announced planned Windows 7 availability on October 22, 2009. User will be given the option to upgrade to Windows 7 program shortly after the placement. Because the operating system and drivers are not final at this time, Windows 7 has not been tested on all user configurations for eligible PCs purchased between June 26, 2009, and December 31, 2009.
